back to school luau

A new community event
for Hartland-Lakeside
students and their families

COMMUNITY

We offered food trucks, activities and the playground for our luau on a Friday night in September at Hartland South.

CONNECTION

Parents enjoyed meeting each other and spending time with their children outside of school hours.

Book Fair

Everybody gets a book

GIVING BACK

We provided $819 in books to students and teachers at South, $497 to students and teachers at North and an additional $771 in books for the book vending machine.

BOOK FAIRY

The HLEF provides books for kids at the book fair who may not be able to afford them. We call this the Book Fairy and it ensures that every kid gets a book to read.

trunk or treat

Helping other organizations in the community

IMPACT

Huge success collaborating with Kiwanis of Greater Hartland, Village of Hartland,
Police/Fire, and Hartland
Library

COMMUNITY

Over 500 trick-or-treaters and a total attendance of over 1,000 people, including parents and children. The event supported fundraising efforts toward the renovation of the children's center at the Hartland Public Library

holiday pie

$869 raised and 15 pies
donated to the staff
lounges

holiday shop

$4,266.50 raised to fund grants and staff appreciation projects

KINDNESS

$260 donated to kids who could not afford to shop by HLEF. We also had parents donate money to kids who could not shop, as well as wrapping supplies

COMMUNITY

$100 in hats, gloves, and miscellaneous items that will be donated to the schools for kids

PRICE CAP

New this year: We capped our prices at $50 per family to make it more accessible for families.

TICKETS

We sold 108 tickets sold this year and gave away 47 stuffies to kids.

OUR FAVES

- Pictures with the Jolly Old Elf
- Games by Mathnasium
- Donuts from Piggly Wiggly
- Hot Cocoa by Dousman Transport

staff love

How did we help those who are helping our kids most?

MEALS

We provide our teachers a conference meal on their late conference nights across all three schools.

PROJECTS

- Ice machines for staff lounges
- Stocking up snacks and drinks for staff lounges

bringing joy

We love making our kids smile!

POPCORN

Once a month popcorn day includes EVERY CHILD, even if they can't afford to pay for it.

SPIRIT DAYS

From sports jersey day to holiday jammies day, our kids love dressing up!

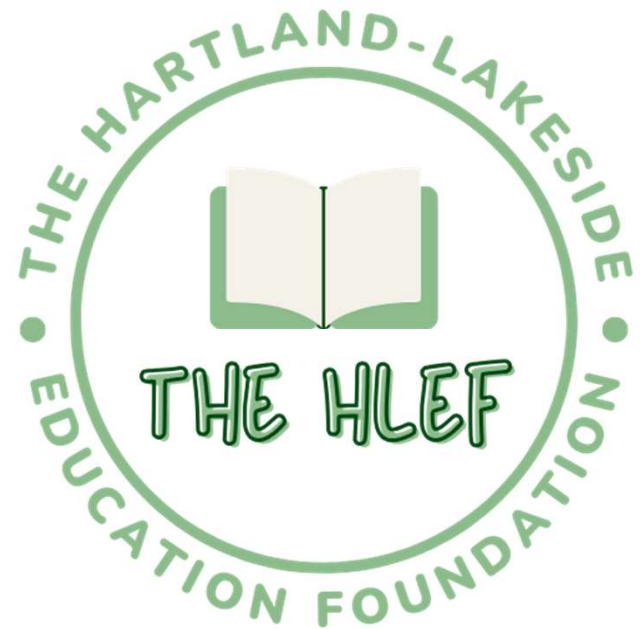

VOLNTEERS

Students whose parents volunteer at their school tend to have better school attendance and behavior, get better grades, and even demonstrate better social skills.
